Friday Morning, June 11, 1869. We have another turn of the kaliedescope called the Telegraph, and this time, the Cuban news disposes of forty thousand insurgents, more than we supposed had ever been assembled on the 1 land. There appears to be some shadow of truth about it, as the acting Captain General informs the Spanish government that he can manage now without any more reinforements. The probability is, that the raiders and their misguided creole associates, will be swept from the Island or summarily disposed of by the authorities; peace will be re-established, but who will replace the homesteads reduced to ashes? the property to the extent of many millions destroyed? the thousands of innocent lives sacrificed? Or re-habilitate outraged women? Who will bring back the laborers to their toil that were forced to the front ranks at the point of the bayonet by the miscreants from abroad, and were shot down by the troope? Who will re-imburse the landed proprietors for the loss of their crops for two or three years, or save them from bankruptcy and ruin in consequence of their inability to procure the necessary hands for their plantstion? But, then, people who appreciate smartness should not be too fastidious; a dozen men perhaps will clear a few thousand dollars. It may be objected that the small modicum of profit is a very poor sett off against the murder, misery and desolation that produced it; that may be true that produced it; that may be true Esterhazy that evening in one of the stage enough, but who cares? Certainly not the perpetrators; and then Spain is too weak and too poor to make a national question of it, so that it can't possibly do any harm. These are certanly smart arguments, but if Spain is weak, Providence is strong and has retribution always in store for such crimes which is dealt out to the full when the proper time comes. Consumers of sugar and tobacco will have to wait a year or two before prices resume their normal position; but they can console themselves with the thought that they are assisting to make the Cuban raid a profitable speculation. The ancient Carthagenians were celebrated for their raids and robberies which were usually attended with horible murder and outrage; they thereby obtained a n for faithlessness and treachery till it became a proverb, and the neighboring nations as a public duty, wiped them out. It may seem hard that any nation should be held accountable for the acts of the ill-disposed among its people, but it must be remembered that no nation can be said to possess a government that is powerless to repress acts of lawlessness within its own borders and the invasion by its subjects of States supposed to be at peace with it. Nations must take their places in the family circle, and faithfully perform their duties to their neighors, or be esteemed as Carth-WE once heard of an itinerant lion tamer who used to delight the morbid tastes of his audience by thrusting his head between the capacious jaws of the king of the forest, until the latter concluded to get up a little performance on his own account, and snapped off the tempting morsel that had so often escaped him. The English House of Commons have, in the estimation of the Lords, tempted them with several Bills, which the Lords would fain have decapitated; Friday, June 18, 1869 but by a dexterous handling of the libe ral press, the innocents have hitherto escaped unharmed. The Peers have at last got a Bill in their capacious jaws which is likely to see its last with themthe Irish Church Disestablishment Bill; they would seem to have made up their minds to immolate it on their high altar. It is true that after similar assertions touching other Bills-as for instance the Reform Bill-they backed down, and swallowed the potions with many grimaces. The Irish Church Bill may be disposed of in a similar manner, but at the same time an unusual appearance of determination is observable amongst the leaders of the Government. Gladstone talks of proroguing Parliament, in order to increase his forces in the upper house by the creation of new Peers. Who knows if some outside question may not be brought on the stage to divert the attention of the British public from home politics? It is an old manœuver in political circles, and the same hackthe Alabama claims-that served the politicians in the United States, could be turned to account. Even Fenianism might answer for the time, and George

Francis Train may thus be made useful where he least expects it; the Cuban revolt seems nearly played out. Whath ever turn affairs may take, it is evident that the English people are anxious for a "shindy," and if they do not get it abroad, they show every disposition to try it at home. Nature will have her way, and the ablest government man can form will not alter or divert

The War Talk.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times thus treats the coming war with England:

"A leading member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in a recent conversation on the subject of the Alabama claims and the probabilities of a war with England, seconted the latter proposition as utterly absurd and preposterous. Among the reasons advanced by him against a war with Ecgland were:

First, it would necessarily be a naval war for the invasion and conquest of Canada would be only the work of a week. Being a naval war, the destruction of the commerce and shipping of both countries would be the only result. England has three times the number of steam vessels that we have. all her passenger and mail steamships being available at twenty-four hours' notice as a war flotilia.

Second, a war with England would cost the United States at least $1,000,000,000, which would eventually end in repudiation.

Meanwhile the incidental loss and soffering

Third, the United States cannot afford to hold the British North American possessions as conquered provinces. Four millions of desontented people on the north, and as many millions more on the south would pre-duce a state of affairs anything but pleasant." These in brief are a few of the ressons which render a war with England improbable, if not impossible.

A scene which took place on April 1, at the German Opera at Pesth, has supboxes accompanied by a friend with whom he kept up a loud conversation during the greater part of the first two acts of the opera, occasionally indulging in bursts of laughter during the most touching scene. The rest of the audience became extremely exasperaduring the most touching scenes. The rest of the audience became ex remely exasperated at this unesembly conduct, upon which the Count displayed his indiderence to the general feeling by whistling a popular air. The Captain of the city, who was sitting in the next box, now interfered, at first only by a gesture of remonstrance, but afterwards by word of mouth. As the Count pair no attention to him, the Captain sent a Commissary of Police to enforce his orders, but the latter was received with "Go to the devil". The Captain then sent the Commissary a second time, threatening that if Count Esterhazy continued to interrupt the performance he would order the police to turn him out of the theatre. The second message produced very little more effect than the first, but shortly afterwards the Count and his friend lighted their cigars at the chandaliss. Little their box and then withdraw. The next morning the Count was summoned before the Town Court. He appeared in person, and was condemned to pay a fice of 200 flories. He has challenged Captain Thars, but the latter has refused the intended bonor.

The Late Race between Greyhound and Lucy-curious Charge of Con-Spiracy.

Yesterday morning Frederick Reynolds and James Lascelles appeared before the Hon. Mr. Pemberton at the Police Court to answer to a charge of alleged conspiracy in seeking to defraud J. M. Lammon, the reported owner of the well-known race-gelding Greyhound, of the said animal, valued at $500. The affair grew out of the late race between Greyhound and Lucy, which was won by the latter, ridden by Luscelles, one of the defendants, Reyno'ds, by virtue of a bill of sale held by bim, having taken possession of the gelding a few days ago. The evidence of the complaining witness, if true, discloses a preity state of morals pervading the atmosphere of our turf. Mr. Robertson, instructed by Mr. Bishop, appeared for the prosecution; Mr. Wood, instructed by Messrs Pearkes & Davie, for the defendant Reynolds, and Messrs Drake, Jackson & Aikman for the defendant Lascelles.

J. M. Lammon, sworn-My information charging conspiracy against defendants is true; [bill of sale produced, it was signed by Lummon and read:— 'this is to certify that I have this day sold to F. Reynolds my horse Lammon and read:—'This is to certify that I have this day sold to F. Reynoids my horse Greybound."; this is my signature; the understanding with Reynoids was that I was to receive $400; I told him I would not like to have him keep the borse; he said he didn't want the horse, but he wanted the paper to show that if lost the race he was to have the horse or the money, provided it was bet; I was to get $400 on the morning of the race or on the track; I got no money on account of the bill of sale: I applied to him for money on the track, and he said if I wanted it to bet I could have it; I told him I didn't think I'd want it; I asked him after the race for the bill of sale and he said had destroyed it; before the bill of sale I had received $30 from him—$10 at a time; this sum mentioned in the bill of sale bad nothing to do with the amount previously advanced; Reynolds never applied to me for the horse; I nell him till the 2od of Jane; the horse has since been taken from the field and I don't know where he is; I called on Reynolds and he said he had given Laccelles a bona fide bill of sale of the horse, the field and I don't know where he is; I called on Reynolds and he said he had given Lascelles a bona fide bill of sale of the horse, and that I had given him occ; I asked him if I had ever received the $400 from him; he said 'you are no lawyer;" I then asked him if $30 wasn't all Pd received from him, and he repied that was all; I told him I would pay him the $30 and he said, "all right," and he would go out and see Lascelles about the horse as I wouldn't lose anything by him; this conversation took place in the about the horse as I wouldn't lose anything by bim; this conversation took place in the presence of Wm. Mann; I bought "Groy-hound" and paid for bim. Cross examined by Mr. Wood—I paid for Cross examined by Mr. Wood—I paid for the borss in March, on or about the 8th, in Washington Territary, of J. Spullack; here's the bill of sale, for $300, my own money; that I swear; some of the money I borrowed that I swear; some of the money I borrowed S20 from James Brown; I borrowed $30 of Alexander Holmes, a butcher working for Mr. Reynolds; I had $200 of my own; at the time I bought the borse I had money with me belonging to Mr. Harris and Mr. Clarke to buy stock for them; had a conversation with Lascelles about the horse Greybound, about the 15th of April; toll him the horse was for sale; did not tell bim I could make a good race for the horse if I had him over here; he wanted the horse if 1 had him over here; he wanted me to see if 1 couldn't get the horse over and me to see if I couldn't get the horse over and make a race with Lucy; might have told him the horse could be bought for $300; M., Lascelles never gave me $3.90 to m knowledge; he did not lead me the money—I never had it; I owed Spurtock $30, and he sent me the bill of sale atterwards to victoria; do not remember Lascelles, in presence of Reynolds, saying that I was so long away that he thought his $300 were gone; I did not reply that all I wanted was to make a race so that he and me could make a little money; Lee lent me $50 to bet on the race; Lascelles did not say that Reynolds was willmoney; Lee lent me $50 to bet on the race; Lascelles did not say that Reynolds was willing to advance me $300 or $400 on security of the horse; Lee wrote the bill of sale; Mr. Reynol's gave me $100 to bet for him on the horse, which I did; $400 were not size to Legallar on the assumpts of the on the horse, which I did; $400 were not given to Lascelles on the security of the horse; the horse was taken by force; I met Lee on Broad street and had a conversation with him about the horse and this case; he said the horse would be out of the country before I could get hold of him. By the Court—Who old you bet the $100 with ?

A-With Mr. Lascelles, on account of

A-With Mr. Lascelles, on account of Reynolds. [a laugh]; Lascelles rode against Greybound and won.
The Court here said the case was assuming a new phase, one which made it of great public importance. It was essential that races here should be conducted with a due regard to decency and honesty, and from what had transpired in the examination of the witness Lammon. he considered it neceswhat had transpired in the examination of the witness Lammon, he considered it neces-ary that the Police should make inquiries. He should adjourn the case. The counsel for the defence and prosecution both objected to an adjournment, but finally consumed to a postponement until Wednesday next.

DEATH OF A CARIBOO PACKER IN NEW YORK .- A telegram from New York of May 18th states that George Gibson of Cedar Creek (Cal.) died suddenly at a hotel in hat City the day previous. His effects, amounting in value to $30,000, were taken in charge of by the authorities. The deceased persel was doubtless George Gibson, a packer of Cedar Creek, Cariboo, who left here in Janury last for New York, where he had relayes residing. The amount of money found in his possession corresponds with the amoint he had upon leaving here. Gibson was /'58 pioneer, and accumulated a fortune by m of industry and steady habits.

that Emperor Norton drew up an edict the moment George Francis Train arrived in San Francisco, forbidding him, at the peril of his life, to proceed on any filibustering expeditions against the domain of his cousin-Her Majesty Victoria. This he sent to the Alta for publication, but not appearing His Majesty yesterday called on Train at the Occidental, to deliver his order in person. The great Bloviator received him with becoming deterence, but insisted upon his Fenian foray. His Imperial Majesty, finding the warlike and redoubtable Train to be fully bent upon the expedition, changed his tactice and said, that to avoid the terrible bloodshed that must ensue, he would agree to and pledge bis royal word that, provided Train would pay him $1,200 - one-third down, and the balance in one or two years -he should have the Island of Vancouver delivered peaceably into his hands .- S. F. Call.

SAN JUAN ISLAND, -Affairs on the Island are represented to be in a most flourishing condition. The crops and stock are in fine order and the farmers appear to be prosper-Great preparations are making at the American camp for the proper celebration of the Fourth of July. A free co lation will be provided, and there will be singing, dancing, and music ad lib.

NICELY ARRANGED - We have omitted in our previous notice to state, that reireshments of every description can be had at the Floral Fete on Tuesday next; 180 that the entire day can be devoted to the Exhibition. Thus with the enjoyment of mixing in a gay throng, and the inspiriting strains of music, combined, a delightful day may be looked

FROM PORTLAND .- The steamship Gussis Telfair will leave Portland this morning for this place, and will connect with the Oriflamme at Letoria, which left San Francisco for Portland on Tueslay 1:et.

FOR BURRARD INLET .- The Isabel started for Burrard Inlet yesterday, having in tow the bark Eli Whitney, to load with lumber at the B C. & V. I mills.

THE schooner Lord Ragion, will probably be allowed to whiten her aged bones on the beach at Trial Island where she struck. The cargo-some $1500 in furs-and the rigging were brought safely to shore.

Two new planks will be required in James Bay Bridge. Where the file occurred the other day a hole large enough to admit of the entrance of a horse's hoof has been left.

THE poles for the Government House telegraph line are nearly all set. The line will be carried over James Bay Bidge.

THE II. B. Co's steamer Ofter will said for Nanaimo, Comox, Fort Rupert, Queen Charlotte Island and ports on the Northwest Coast, on or about Monday next.

THE Steamer Eliza Anderson sailed from New Westminster for Victoria at 7:15 o'clock last evening.

Chandler Again.

The Buffalo Courier has a caustic and sensible article upon Sanator Chandler's Annexation resolutions, from which we quote the following :-

"We might consent that he and his constituents who, he declares, are quite will: ing to take upon themselves the task of annexing Canada and compelling Great Britain to surrender the dominion, should do so, if they will give satisfactory bonds that no further trouble shall grow out of the operation. But as to the surrender to be made by Great Britain, it is clear that power cannot surrender any nore than she actually possesses; and ber possession of Canada amounts to very littl . She derives no revenue from it, but is out of pocket through the nominal connection. The Dominion is so nearly connection. independent already that she makes her own tariff; and Great Britain, having conceded that right, can never recall it. Senator Chandler would not like a possession of this kind, where he could not force the people to pay a high price for all their copper kettles, for the sake of enriching a few of his constituents. "The senator does not consider that the Canadians have any rights we are bound to respect, but regards them and their country as mere chattels belonging to Great Britain, to be transferred by by that power whenever she choose, and of Paraguay, and a surgeon in Lopez's be forcibly incorporated into our Union larmy. He was taken prisoner at the against their own wishes. The simple sapture of Humaita. They are also statement of the doctrine is sufficient to contained in private letters from Colcondemn it. would be, at least, as injurious as the tine Republic, and in an official desvoluntary annexation of four millions of patch (just published) by Mr. Ligerfree people like the Canadians would be

"In ancient times the Athenians occasionally intoxicated their slaves, that children might see how odious the failing is, and might never deviate from the paths of temperance. The result of Chandler's long continue | representation of Michigan in the senate of the United States is in its effect not unlike this, although we cannot give his constituents credit for as good motives as those of the Athenian parents. His re-election is owing to personal intrigue and the popularity of his sentiments in the state of Michigan. Nor, in making the comparison do we allude merely to that which, with the lingering respect yet desired to be paid to the high position of senator of the United States is called by the significant term, the wine cup, although doubtless some more potent and liberal expression would be more appropriate. We refer to the political intemperance of which Chandler is so bright and conspicuous an example.

The nearly universal condemnation of his characteristics. Nor does this quack statesman always fail in combining with others to get us all into hot water, and then having an opportunity of prescrib-ing his favorite remedy of national 'bloods letting' on a stupendous scale. We con-gratulate our fellow-citizens of the state of New York that we are not as othe 's are in different parts of the Union, not even as the Michigan voters who are openly represented by Senator Chandler."

Abother Speech by George Francis Train.

FROM THE NEW YORK SUN. MAY 7. Mr. Train on coming forward was greeted

Mr. Train on coming forward was greeled with that tremendous enthusiasm with which he is always received. Three cheers and a tiger were given for the "future Pressident of the United Stater." and an enthusiastic lemale exclaimed, "May England nover get hord of you again." This gave the orator a nint for his beginning, and he suid: I am not atraid of that; I have got hold of her. When I get my fingers upon the jugular vein of a nation there is little hope for her. [Cheers] According to all the rules of uptilic speaking I should not be here tonight. A dozen speeches will usually put night. A dozen speeches will usually put a man out of Court. Two short sermons on a Sunday, and a dergyman thinks he must travel to Europe or Cuoa. Now this is the one hundred and fourth time successively toat I have addressed immense audiences in ta's country, each for two or three hours, and since I got out of a British basille, and called for three ones for Ireland and three groups for England, in the presence of the anilitary and poince. According to all the raits I ought to be laid up in bed; I ought to have the bronching or something else wrong with me. But I haven'r. What is the reason? Your Chairman has elequently al'uded to it. It is because I have never tasted a drop of linger in me life. If Contract of the tasted a drop of liquor in my life. [Great applause] It is because I am a Father Mathew man that I am not house to night. applause | It is occause I am a Father Mathew man that I am not hoarse to night. I am glad that I am not hoarse to night, for to-morrow I speak in Pike's Opera House, in Circonnati, on the 10th of the month I speak in Chicago; on the 12th I speak in the Academy of Music in Onaha, 1500 miles away, on the 16th I talk "Woman Suffrage" in San Francisco and organize a Fenian army to seize Vancouver Island I am not hoarse to night and I am able to carry out the programme I have laid before you, because I do not drink inquor or smoke, snuff or chew tobacco. When I look at or smell tobacco I pity the mouth of the chewer, but when I look at the mouth of the chewer I pity the lobacco. [Laughter.] Your Chairman has alluded to the names by which I am celled and the epithets applied to me—insanc, eccentric, incoherent, demagogue &c. Now if I have any honesty, genius, or power in the world, latiributs it entirely to my insanity. If I were coherent, I would do as Wenter I was the second of the stranger of the program of the stranger of t ity. If I were coherent, I would do as Wendell Phillips does, who has delivered his leccare on the lost arts for twenty-three years; or Summer, who has delivered his on the or Chapin, who has given his on "Columbus" some 400 times: or Edward Everet ao

spoke on "Washington" 380 iim s. THE PECUNDITY OF THE IRISH BAC

THE PECUNDITY OF THE IRISH BACK.

I stand by the Cathelies. I rely on them entirely to preserve our country from degradation and ruin. [Applause.] In every American family, at an average, there were to be found but one and a ball children, while in Irish Catholic families there were ten, twelve and twenty. STOP SWILLING GIN;

We must get rid of our addiction to ginswilling. Under the Father Mathew temple I want to erect Turkish baths, that I may be your doctor. There are three thousand quack medicines which I must banish from society. Three Professors run the whole machine—the lawyer, the doctor and the minister—and, like the devil-fish of Victor Hugo, they suck your life-blood. One takes your body, another your purse and the third your soul. When I return from Cultiornia in bout six weeks I propose to erect a Turkish-

Atrocities perpretated by the Paraguayan Dictator.

The statements contained in the following communication rest partly on the authority of documents which fell into the hands of the Allies after the flight of Lipez, and partly on the testmiony of Dr. Stewart, an English physician, for thirty years a resident wood, acting Charge d'Affaires at Rio.

"Among the acts of Lopez, as appears by a book of orders found at Cambarity, and dated at San Fernando, 530 'accused traitors,' natives and foreigners, whose names are given, were execute i by supreme command, tween June 17th and December 14th 1868: 172 died in prison or in irons; o 190 taken from prison to work in trenches, 71 were killed; of the 698 whose fate is here recorded only 8 were set at liberty. According to Dr. Stewart, these names do not by any means cover the numbers who have perished by Lopez's orders of cruelties. Of 600,000 inhabitants of Paraguay, he says only about 80,000 are left, of whom 40,000 are women and children, families of the best educated class; 180,000 males have perished. He also says the people hate Lopez, and since the middle of 1866 the white population has had but one wish about the struggle—that the Allies or some other Power should rid them of their distroyer.

The nearly universal condemnation of his recent speech shows how useful he may be were driven into the country under an armed as a beacon—not to attract, but repel, the extremists as to the annexation of Canas words "to get their living" were afterwards

European Mari Summary.

Several journals have lately referred to pious pilgrimage to the Holy Land to be undertaken by the Empress of the Frenct in fulfillment of a vow made at the period of the Prince Imperial's birth Some prints have even gone so far as to describe the itinerary of the journey. What is certain is that the Viceroy of Egypt some time back addressed a letter to the Empress inviting Her Majesty to honorthe Isthmus of Suez Canal and that this invitation was graciously accepted. The Moniteur d'Alexandrie announces that the Empress had an inquiry made of M. de Lesseps as to the period when the Imperial yacht l'Aigle would be able to triverse the Isthmus. If the Empress visited Egypt she would naturally take advantage of the opportunity to accomplish at the same time her journey to Paestine.

A private letter from Rome, written, says the London Weekly Register, by one likely to be well informed on the subject, says that on the meeting of the Ecunenical Council in December next one, and only one political question will be discussed. This will be an endeavour on the part of the Holy Father as the head of the United Church to persuade the different nations of Europe to disarm their present enormous and costly armies and feets and submit their differences to arbitration. Non Catholic as well as Catholic Powers will be urged not to break the peace and it will give a guarantee or promise that they will not do so The Holy Father is reported to have said that of the auniversary of feliciations he received on the anniversary of his jubilee, none gave so much pleasure as the unexpectd courtesy of the Queen of England, who, although differing from Catholies in matters of faith, has by this simple act bound more firmly than ever in loyalty her many Catholic subjects.

The Italian papers contain but little information respecting the conspiracy which is said to have been discovered in Milan. One of the persons arrested is described as Mr. Nathan, an Englishman who is "said" to be an intimate friend of Mazzini. Hence the name given to the

The North German Parliament discussed, on April 22, the estimates of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs. Twesten made a speech, in which he called upon Count Bismark to lar before the House copies of the diplomatic correspondence in the shape of a Blue Book as it is done by other Governments Count Bismark replied that in countries where this custom obtained it proceded from the necessities of the Parliamentary system but that it created mistrust among foreign Governments. Coun Bismark added that in Eugland the publication of official documents was manage ed with great diplomatic fact, the result of many years experience but, nevertheless it had given rise to complaints. It was well known that the very prudent pub ications made by the French Govern ment did not obtain their Parlimentary object. He himself was not an advocate

Dr. J. C. Aven: Sir. I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla. I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Fenered and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilite ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla steadily taken cured him in live works. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the allocation had caten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his notof your sarsaparilla; it is ided to my a and he is well again, not of course who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., citl. July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Averle, Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which balled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in your Sarsaparilla. One bothe cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine.

Jeffelm, Jules Y. Getchell, cf. St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for yours with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried everything, and everything failed to releve me: and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than devangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to ryy our Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and anything you made was worth trying. By the lessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to made a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."
